ÁegisLiving Invites the Community to ‘Opening Day’ with Edgar Martinez

Teams up with Seattle Mariners Legend to Open Áegis Senior Inn of Issaquah

ISSAQUAH, Wash. – Sept. 15, 2005 – ÁegisLiving, a family-owned senior living company based in Redmond, Wash., today invited the public to an “Opening Day” celebration for the company’s remodeled community, Áegis Senior Inn of Issaquah.

“Opening Day,” featuring Seattle Mariners slugger and future Hall of Famer Edgar Martinez, is slated for Friday, Sept. 16, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Áegis Senior Inn of Issaquah, 780 N.W. Juniper St. in Issaquah.

Martinez will be on hand to meet fans and sign autographs. Fans will also have the opportunity to win autographed Seattle Mariners’ prizes, including a bat autographed by Martinez, a baseball autographed by Dan Wilson and a jersey signed by Ichiro. In addition, the event will feature family-fun activities, such as a speed-pitch booth, a dunking tank, and concession-style food and refreshments.

“I’m very excited to invite the public to visit our community to learn more about ÁegisLiving as a company and as a neighbor.” says ÁegisLiving founder and CEO Dwayne Clark. “I welcome everyone to come see our fresh and innovative approach to senior living and dementia care.”

Áegis Senior Inn of Issaquah provides assisted living services as well as ÁegisLiving’s nationally recognized Alzheimer’s and dementia program, Life’s Neighborhood™. This affordable community features seven quaint residential cottages, each with 14 private studio apartments. The property is located on five beautiful acres that include walking paths and natural wetlands. In addition, Áegis of Issaquah is a pet-friendly community.

“Áegis of Issaquah defines home and comfort. We take great pride in providing the highest quality of care and service to the people who live here,” says Derrick Skinner, executive director of Áegis of Issaquah. “We take the time to listen and learn about the people who live here – their families, backgrounds, jobs, hobbies, interests and favorite foods. It’s a privilege to serve these amazing people, and we take it very seriously.”

ÁegisLiving applies an innovative approach to senior living that focuses on special philosophies of care. This approach has made ÁegisLiving a success story in the industry and a premier choice for those seeking senior living services.
