that only begins to talk of leaving when September rises to go."

— George Washington Cable

Bumper Sticker Snicker

Ever stop to think
... and forget to start again?

Some days you're
the bug; some days
you're the windshield.

Word Nerd

The answer to the following clues is a phrase that rhymes.
For example, a "neat flower" is an
"awesome blossom."

1. Pop's patterned shirts

2. Refreshing swimming area

3. Faded coat of color

4. Disappointing
season

5. Delightful rays
of light

(Answers: 1. Dad's
plaids; 2. Cool pool;
3. Faint paint; 4.
Bummer summer; 5.
Divine sunshine)

Mr. McGraw has been building houses for years. Everyone who walks into the Bentley Manor can't help but stop and admire his work. It is truly beautiful.

Wit & Wisdom

"By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong."

—Charles Wadsworth

"When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much he had learned in seven years."

—Mark Twain

"When I was a kid, I used to imagine animals running under my bed. I told my dad, and he solved the problem quickly. He cut the legs off the bed."

—Lou Brock

"The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother."

—Theodore Hesburgh
